Eat-Learn-Live

On March 10, Rev. Thomas Ogletree, a UMC clergy person and former Dean at Yale Divinity School, will go on trial under the rules of the UM Book of Discipline for officiating at his son's wedding to a same gender partner. The Rev. Frank Schaeffer of Pennsylvania was recently "de-frocked" for the same infraction. As the culture moves toward greater acceptance of marriage equality, and church trials continue, what should our response be as a Reconciling United Methodist Congregation? Join guest speakers and Pastor Deb for an important conversation on Wednesdays – 6:30 to 8:00 p.m., Feb. 19 and 26.

Feb. 19: Laws Matter – A guest attorney, who works for LGBT justice in the community, speaks about the current legal climate in the country and in Ohio related to marriage equality, and about why it matters to families that partners be married.

Feb. 26: Church Matters- Pastor Deb Stevens reviews what is happening in the UMC, how we got to where we are, and what the future may bring for couples, congregations and clergy who are committed to offering marriage to all properly prepared couples. Sign up today for this special ELL Session!

Although youth 7th-12th grade get priority, this means that if you were once a youth, are a youth, or will someday be a youth, you are eligible to come on the trip to serve others (persons younger than 7th grade need a parent to accompany them). Pastor Dave currently has 1 open spot on the team, which is capped at 20 persons maximum. Your cost is $335 per person, which might be reduced depending on fundraising. The trip is the week of June 8th. For more details or to reserve a spot, talk to Pastor Dave (dfirth@north-broadway.org).

ABOUT WORSHIP

The service follows a printed order of worship, provided by the ushers. The community is invited to speak together the words that are printed in bold. The community is invited to stand (if able) where an asterisk * appears.

The offering is a regular part of each worship service, as the community shares resources to continue and enlarge our shared ministry. If you are a visitor, we especially invite you to introduce yourself to one of the pastors. May you sense God's presence as we worship together.

North Broadway's Identity

As Christians, we: Celebrate the God-given diversity of the human family, welcoming all people of every race, age, nationality, gender identity, sexual orientation, economic status, mental and physical ability.

Proclaim God's love and grace for all persons in worship, study and action, inviting persons to experience God's mercy.

Share in the reconciling ministry of Jesus Christ, working to remove the barriers that divide the human family from God and from others, including those related to economic and social injustices.

Rely on the witness of scripture, tradition, reason and experience, seeking to discern God's continuously unfolding will for the human community and our global environment.
